

The 2022 Masterclass Series

The BASL Masterclass Series delivers current and relevant content in an interactive and engaging environment. Each Masterclass is delivered by sport and law professionals and is accompanied by a Masterclass Pack, enabling further knowledge enhancement as well as being pivotal reference points for participants during and after the Masterclass.

All Masterclasses, whether online or in person, will be delivered with a limited capacity to offer full accessibility and engagement to all participants.

2022 Schedule

25th February - Sports Media Rights: Maximising Value Via Tender Processes & Deal Negotiations

Oliver Holland and Kate Sloane, TEAM Marketing UK

25th March - Integrity in Sport: Challenges and Considerations

Tim Naylor, British Horseracing Authority

29th April - Challenges for Sport in a Pandemic

Polly Handford, The FA and James Stebbing, Six Nations Rugby

27th May - Beyond the Field of Play: The Impact of Immigration in Sport

Laura Darnley and Arshia Hashmi, Brabners LLP

24th June - Player v Agent Disputes in Sport: Core Legal Principles

Daniel Saoul QC, 4 New Square

23rd September - Whistleblowing in Sport and How to Protect the Whistleblower

Louis Weston, Outer Temple Chambers

28th October - A Winter World Cup: Regulatory Considerations

Barry Lysaght, Saudi Arabian Football Federation

25th November - Integrity, Commercial and Regulatory Issues in Esports

Speaker(s) TBC